

The idea of allowing cell phones on airplanes is APPALLING! Please do not change the rules and allow cell phones. They're bad enough on the street, but confined in a small space with people who think about only themselves they would be intolerable and the airlines would be in even more trouble than they are now.